NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

The City of Norfolk, Virginia, enjoys the proud distinction of being the second City on the Atlantic Seaboard in importance of location and transportation facilities, and in respect to harbor accommodations, health conditions and inducements for residence and business, and opportunities for mercantile and agricultural pursuits, it acknowledges no superior.

The City has an area of 9.33 square miles, of which the public parks occupy 103.7 acres.

To go thoroughly into and enumerate at length in detail the items which go to make up her claims for consideration, would involve a labor which could only be compensated by personal investigation on the spot, as otherwise the charge of boasting without having the goods to deliver might be justified.

The growth of the City, from its incipency in 1682, with an inappreciable population, shows a panorama of steady, substantial and tangible increase, until at the time of this publication, a population, within Municipal limits, of 83,044 is officially acknowledged, and it is estimated that within a radius of fifteen miles from the center of the City, more than 130,000 people are located. This is the more remarkable because of the fact that the location being directly on the coast admits of only one-half of the circle area for population. The steady increase may best be shown by the following:

Population in 1840,	10,920
“ “ 1880,	21,966
“ “ 1900,	46,624
“ “ 1912,	83,044

showing in 1912 an increase of 78.1— over 1900.

PLAN OF GOVERNMENT.

The Municipal Government is vested in a Mayor, a Council consisting of two branches, viz.: Board of Aldermen and Common Council, and a Board of Control, the latter consisting of three members, all being elected by popular vote.

The City is divided into five Wards, viz.: Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe. From each of these Wards are elected three Aldermen and five members of the Common Council, making a total of 40 members of the Council.

There is one branch of the City Government, however, which is probably unique in the general scheme of municipalities. This is termed officially, “THE BOARD OF COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS,” termed for the sake of brevity, “THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION.” This Board consists of eight members, serving without compensation, and selected as follows: Three from the Common Council, two from the Board of Aldermen and three at large, the latter appointed by the Mayor, each to serve two years.

The Ordinance creating this Commission defines its duties and powers in a general and comprehensive way, recommending to its consideration all matters of internal improvements now in existence or which may be projected from time to time, the commercial industrial and manufacturing interests of the City, the guardianship of its rights and privileges in all matters of transportation and communication, whether by land or water, by telegraph, telephone, or otherwise.

While the Commission has no executive powers, still it may be easily seen that the wide latitude given it by the Ordinance, makes it an advisory factor of great value, relieving the Council of much detail work.

In addition to the above, one of the principal functions of the Commission is to exploit and advertise the City by every means in its power. To this end, an annual appropriation is made for its use in this direction, with the result that high class literature is prepared and distributed over the whole country, and at conventions assembling here.

Its office is a Bureau of Information, where a representative may be found at all times during the business hours of the day, prepared to furnish the traveling public, or any others, with any information they might desire concerning the City and vicinity.

The work of the Industrial Commission has been most successful since its incipiency, and as a factor in the matter of improvement and development of the City, it continues to grow daily in value and importance.

INDUSTRIAL.

Norfolk's productions are varied and manifold, and opportunities for investment of capital in manufacturing propositions are unlimited. There are at present over 350 manufacturing plants in operation, employing capital of $20,000,000.00 and 13,000 hands, and turning out $40,000,000.00 worth of products annually. Among the latter may be mentioned: Knit Goods, Silk, Manufactured Iron Articles of various kinds, Fertilizer, Lumber and its products, Cutlery, Farming Implements, Bricks, Carriages and Wagons, Butter Dishes, Paper Boxes, Veneer, Vegetable Barrels, Boxes and Crates, Creosoted Wood, Wines, Confectionery, and many others.

Here are handled annually, and shipped for outside consumption:

Peanuts.....	over 2,000,000 bags,	value $15,000,000.00
Fertilizer.....	275,000 tons,	5,400,000.00
Cotton.....	635,000 bales,	32,000,000.00
Coal.....	10,000,000 tons,	25,000,000.00
Lumber.....	700,000,000 feet,	35,000,000.00
Oysters, Crabs and Fish.....		3,000,000.00
Vegetable Food Stuffs.....		15,000,000.00

Norfolk is the largest peanut center in the world, and the second largest coal port. Upon the completion of piers now under construction, it will be the largest coal port in the world.

AGRICULTURE.

Taken as a unit for demonstration, the 100 square miles in which Norfolk is located, it is a fact, according to U. S. Government Agricultural Department Statistics, that the soil produces more pecuniary value from agricultural sources than any other 100 contiguous square miles in the United States or Canada. The Norfolk-Portsmouth section is the green food produce supply for the North and West, and in the season of 1912, 5,000,000 packages of green food stuff were shipped, aggregating in value something like $15,000,000. One of the items of this stupendous production was potatoes, of which over 1,000,000 barrels were shipped, the balance consisting of thirty-nine varieties of fruit and vegetables in varying quantities.

TRANSPORTATION.

No City in the country is better located for, or better provided with transportation facilities for the import of raw material and the export of finished product than is Norfolk. Seven of the most important trunk line railroads in the country, aggregating with their allied lines 42,000 miles of track, have their deep water terminals here, and in addition to seven ocean-going steamship lines, there are numerous river lines centering in this harbor, the smaller lines bringing in produce from the near-lying sections, and the larger ones handling all classes of freight to and from the ports of the world. It is truly stated that at the large railroad terminals here, freight may be unloaded from vessels on one side of a pier from any port in the world, and loaded into cars on the same pier for any point in North America which can be reached by rail. The following large rail and water lines enter Norfolk: Norfolk & Western Railway, Southern Railway, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, Chesapeake & Ohio Railway, New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad (Pennsylvania System), Virginian Railway, Seaboard Air Line Railway, Norfolk Southern Railroad, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Merchants and Miners Transportation Company, Baltimore Steam Packet Company, Chesapeake Steamship Line, Clyde Steamship Lines, Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Company, and many smaller water lines. These valuable adjuncts of transportation, together with additional facilities now under consideration, will place Norfolk in an unrivaled position for the handling of the immense traffic which will be developed for this coast upon the opening of the Panama Canal.

FINANCIAL.

The pulse of a City's prosperity may always be felt through its banking institutions, and these financial arteries are peculiarly well established and managed in Norfolk, where there are thirteen banks, State and National. Let the figures speak:

	Clearings	Deposits	Capital and Surplus
1910.....	$158,618,952.00	$18,613,592.00	$6,173,591.00
1911.....	168,007,587.00	20,892,149.00	6,347,370.00
1912.....	189,997,676.00	23,001,927.00	6,585,119.00

In this category it might be well to state that the building operations in Norfolk have increased from $95,800.00 in 1900 to $3,393,677.00 in 1912, and taxable values from $65,619,700.00 in 1911, to $67,206,480.00 in 1912.

A CONVENTION CITY.

Norfolk is rapidly assuming her place in the front ranks of Cities favored by all classes of organizations as a haven of hospitality and convenience for assembling of conventions. No City in the Eastern section of the country can offer more attractions in the way of accessibility, climate, hotel accommodations, and food supply suitable to any season, than Norfolk, and so far from having to seek or solicit annual gatherings of business and social bodies, voluntary applications are frequent for information as to times and seasons most favorable for such gatherings. There are nine modern hotels here, with a capacity for accommodating 3,000 guests or more.

EDUCATIONAL.

No single item can evidence a City's prosperity better than that of educational advantages and facilities. It can be said with justifiable pride, that Norfolk has a public school system unsurpassed in the South. The system comprises thirty-eight schools, with 325 teachers and 11,100 pupils. The Matthew F. Maury High School, lately completed, is modern and up-to-date in every particular, and its graduates are ready for entrance into universities. The City has invested a million and a half dollars in school buildings, ground and equipment.

Several high grade private schools lend an additional interest to the educational feature, and there is a well-established Mechanics Institute, where enterprising and ambitious young men are able at an almost inappreciable expense to equip themselves for practical business or professional life.

One hundred and thirty-one churches and a fine public library but add to the opportunities for education and culture.

HEALTH AND DIVERSION.

Thanks to an entirely efficient and up-to-date Health Department, the scheme of which is now being freely advocated as a standard for work in other Cities, Norfolk enjoys health conditions to the extent that the mortality rate is lower than any other City South of New York.

The climatic conditions are ideal, and the fresh air from the sea tends to cool the temperature in Summer, especially at night, and in Winter a moderate cold is tempered by the proximity of the Gulf Stream.

The average temperatures for the seasons are, for Spring, 57; Summer, 76; Autumn, 61; and Winter, 42 degrees.

The whole community enjoys the proximity of seven seaside resorts, all within one hour's ride by trolley or boat. Among these may be mentioned Ocean View, Virginia Beach, Cape Henry, Willoughby Beach and Old Point Comfort.

With these attractions in the Summer and four first-class theatres for Winter amusement, Norfolk is indeed a fortunate haven for those seeking rest and recreation.

THE HARBOR OF NORFOLK-PORTSMOUTH.

The port and harbor of Norfolk-Portsmouth are too well known to the outside world for an unskilled pen to do justice to their tremendous importance and capacity. In short, there is a channel from the Atlantic Ocean, through that peerless world-known harbor of Hampton Roads, to the United States Navy Yard above the Cities, thirty-five feet in depth, and varying in width from 450 to 300 feet—sufficient to carry in safety the largest ships afloat. The value of the tonnage carried in this channel to and from the harbor is annually about $800,000,000.00.

NAVAL AND ARMY STATION.

The Norfolk Navy Yard, located on the Southern Branch of the Elizabeth River, is esteemed by the United States Government to be the most important, strategically and otherwise, on the Atlantic Seaboard. Here there are three drydocks, the largest of which will accommodate any battleship now afloat. An invested capital of $9,000,000.00 by the Government is represented in this Navy Yard, which employs nearly 3,000 workmen. Also, in connection with this Naval Station is the St. Helena Training Station for Naval Apprentices, through which passes 42% of the apprentices enlisted in the United States Navy. The Government has invested $840,000.00 in the equipment of this Station. The United States Marine Hospital, located in this harbor, is now one of the most important adjuncts of the United States Health Service, and plans are now on foot to make it the finest Naval Hospital center in the world by the application of an appropriation of $2,000,000.00 which has been asked for by the Naval Medical Authorities for this purpose.

It is an assured fact that in the immediate future, a fortification will be established at Cape Henry, seventeen miles from Norfolk, which will be the Gibraltar of the Atlantic Coast. It is designed by the Government to expend over $3,000,000.00 in fortifying the entrance to Chesapeake Bay at this point, and it is conceded that this is the most vital military project of this time. The nearness of Fort Monroe, a large Army Post, lends much interest along these lines. Also the State of Virginia has acquired and equipped a permanent Rifle Range and grounds for the annual encampment and manoeuvres for the State Troops, a few miles South of Cape Henry, an hour's ride from Norfolk. This Rifle Range will be used also by the United States Government for Target Practice.

FINALLY.

It will be observed that almost the whole burden of progressive figures shown in the foregoing has been borne by the last decade, and if the conservative progress of the past is an earnest for the future, the destiny of Norfolk is assured as placing it among the great Cities of the country.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

BAGNALL

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

BEALE

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

BOLT

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

BROCK

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

BURTLESS

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

CASTLEBERRY

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

COLEMAN

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

DAY

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

DRUMGOOL

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ETHERIDGE

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

FITZGIBBON

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

GARDINER

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

GOSS

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

THE first impression created by a business letter is based upon its outward appearance—upon its mechanical make-up, the quality of its paper and the grade of its printing; upon the superficed qualities that are apparent at a glance. In other words the general appearance of a letter is the first appeal it makes to the average man. The feature of a business letter that invariably commands the first conscious attention of the recipient is the name—printed or written—of the firm or individual from whom the letter comes

HALE

ST. DENIS

A name, that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

HARVELL

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

HOCKADAY

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

HUDSON

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

KNIGHT

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

LEIGHTON

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

McCLOUD

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

MILLER

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

ST. DENIS

PALMER

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

PIEDMONT

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.

RAGAN

RANDALL

ST. DENIS

A name that in France for a thousand years has stood for the historical association of chivalry and high romance. In Norfolk the name of an elegant cafe, where food and liquors of a superior quality are served in a manner equal to any of the famous cafes of old Paris. Personal service, in the true sense of the term, is to be enjoyed within the hospitable doors of this celebrated cafe. The verdict of its patrons justifies the statement that the Cafe St. Denis is the place par excellence for rest and the refreshment of the inner man.
